

Tiago Filipe Soares Silva

tiagosilva.05.2000@gmail.com

+447784730680

A Southbank Centre Future Artist and Britten Pears Young Artist, Tiago Soares Silva's recent appearances include Wigmore Hall, Queens Hall Edinburgh, Southbank Centre, Stamford International Festival, Aldeburgh Festival, Lerici Music Festival, St. James's Piccadilly, Petworth Chamber Music Festival, Linbury Theatre at the Royal Opera House, Fidelio Café, and Ferrandou Musique. He is a recording artist with Luminate Records, releasing an EP of Brett Dean's String Quartet No.1 "Eclipse". He has also recorded Justin Connolly's Ceilidh for Divine Records, as part of a landmark double-album dedicated to Justin Connolly's music, which has been favourably reviewed by Gramophone, British Music Society, Classical Music Daily, amongst others. Tiago is a founding member of the 97 Ensemble, collaborating with charities such as Amnesty International and Solace Women's Aid. He is also Vice-President of FAMART – Cultural Association, bringing cultural events throughout the northern countryside regions of Portugal.

Tiago is a First Class Honours graduate of the Royal College of Music, and a former postgraduate and scholar at the Royal Academy of Music. He is currently an Advanced Postgraduate Diploma student of Roman Mints at the Royal Birmingham Conservatoire, supported by the Headley Trust. He performs on a circa 1710 Gioffredo Cappa violin, kindly on loan by the Royal Academy of Music.

